BOARD AND COMMISSION APPLICATION

Thank you for considering serving your community. To assist the Village Council in making the best match between boards and members, we would appreciate you telling us a little about yourself and your interests. Please understand while completion of this form does not guarantee an appointment it is a very helpful first step in that process. To be appointed to a Village Board you must be registered to vote in the Village. If you are not currently registered to vote in the village, or are not sure, Please call the Village office.

Below is a brief summary of each Village Board's function and their current meeting schedule. Please number the board(s) you are interested in serving on in your order of preference (1 being the board you would like to be appointed to most).

- Park and Recreation Board: Fourth Monday of the month. Research and make recommendations to Council regarding recreational facilities and activities and undertake recreational programs for the community.
- Planning Commission: Fourth Thursday of the month. Review plans, study and make recommendations on planning and zoning matters to Council.
- Water Management Board: First Wednesday of the month. Research and recommend to Council on Lake related issues affecting the Village.
- Zoning Board of Appeals: Third Tuesday of the month. Consider appeals to Zoning regulations.
